

Information about the Danielle Denise Scholarship

ABOUT DANIELLE

Danielle Denise Green was born March 31, 1975 in New York. She lived a normal, healthy and happy life in Charleston attending school and playing with friends. She experienced one crisis and passed suddenly at the age of four on November 6, 1979 at Roper Hospital. It was determined that it was due to sickle cell disease - thalassemia.

At that time her parents were unaware that they both had the sickle cell trait.

ANNUAL STATEWIDE CAMPAIGN TO BRING AWARENESS TO SICKLE CELL

---

 The Danielle Denise Scholarship
$1000 AWARD

CRITERIA:

1. One year South Carolina resident 16 years or older
2. Sickle Cell Disease diagnosis
3. Acceptance into an accredited College, University, or Vocational School in the USA, Fall or Spring semester
4. One year equivalent of certified community service

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Typed written 750 word self-titled essay about what your life has taught you
2. Include a cover sheet with legal name, street address, mailing address, home and cell #'s to include area codes, name and address of High School
3. Parent or guardian name, address and phone # for 21 years or under
4. Two reference letters:
Senior advisor or certified community agent and attending Physician
5. Document verifying graduation status or copy of original High School Equivalency or General Equivalency (GED)

DEADLINES: There is one award. Entry with supporting documents and a 5x7 color photograph must be mailed as a package by August 31st for fall semester or December 1st for spring semester.

FAITHWORKS INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES is a 501c3 Organization and reserves the right to keep and use essays and photos for promotional purposes. An admission letter is required before award is issued to admitting school.

MAIL:

FAITHWORKS INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES
DANIELLE DENISE GREEN SCHOLARSHIP
POST OFFICE BOX 22602
CHARLESTON, S.C. 29413

INFORMATION CONTACT:

Pastor Doris Haynes, Project Coordinator
faithworkshaynes@gmail.com