

Medical University of South Carolina

OBGYN Residency Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

The MUSC Department of OBGYN is COMMITTED to fostering a culture that VALUES individuals working together with DIVERSE IDEAS AND BACKGROUNDS to improve the health of our patients.

| | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| Program Mission | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To train skilled specialists in the delivery of high quality, compassionate, accountable, and innovative care to all women of South Carolina regardless of age or background |
| Grand Rounds | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Concerted effort to include DEI topics• Recent topics include combating systemic racism and care of LGBTQ+ patients |
| Antiracism in Medicine | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Faculty and resident discussion group with recommended reading or viewing• Upcoming discussion of “Aftershock” |
| M&M | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Consideration of the impact of health disparities on each M&M case |
| DEI Chief Resident and Committee | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Resident driven initiatives |
| Recruiting Diverse Residents | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Wholistic application review• Bias training for application reviewers and interviewers |

For more information about our program or DEI initiatives email Dr. Goodier (PD) goodier@musc.edu or Stacey Livingston (PM) westbury@musc.edu or Michele Saums (DEI Chief) saums@musc.edu