20th Annual Charleston Magnolia Conference

Medical University of South Carolina | Department of Otolaryngology - Head & Neck Surgery

Conference Overview

The Charleston Magnolia Conference consists of two half day sessions covering the broad spectrum of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery. The lectures and round table discussions are specifically aimed at the practicing otolaryngologist. There will be ample opportunity for questions, comments, and presentation of cases by the audience. Our goal will be to review and to provide the latest information on a broad range of topics, so that optimal diagnostic and management strategies can be formulated.

The conference will be held at the Hyatt Place Historic District, 560 King Street, in downtown Charleston. Afternoons and evenings will be free to attend Spoleto Festival events, sightsee in historic Charleston, play golf, or enjoy beach and water recreational activities.

Credit Designation

The Medical University of South Carolina designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Accreditation Statement

The Medical University of South Carolina is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Americans with Disabilities Act

It is the policy of the Medical University of South Carolina not to discriminate against any person on the basis of disabilities. If you feel you need services or the auxiliary aids mentioned in this act in order to fully participate in this continuing medical education activity, please call the Department of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery at 843-876-0943 or attach a note to your registration.

Charleston Named Top U.S. City for the 9th consecutive year!

Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards.

Overall Objectives

Upon completion of this conference, participants should be better able to:

1. Apply treatment guidelines for chronic rhinosinusitis.
2. Identify how to manage sleep disordered breathing in children.
3. Define safety concerns for pediatric nasal surgery.
4. Apply current diagnostic and treatment protocols for chronic cough.
5. Identify surgical paradigms in managing frontal sinus trauma.
6. Explain a cost and time-efficient evaluation for the dizzy patient.
7. Describe optimizing surgical approaches for submandibular sialolithiasis.
8. Explain how to best prescribe opioids to prevent dependency.
9. Apply the latest treatment protocols for head and neck cancer.

Disclosure Statement

In accordance with the ACCME Essentials and Standards, anyone involved in planning or presenting this educational activity will be required to disclose any relevant financial relationships with commercial interests in the healthcare industry. This information will be made available to participants at the beginning of the activity. Speakers who incorporate information about off-label or investigational use of drugs or devices will be asked to disclose that information at the beginning of their presentation.

Scientific Session Moderator: Rodney J. Schlosser, M.D.

7:40 to 8:10 a.m. Lessons Learned ..... William M. Luxford, M.D.
The participant should be better able to demonstrate speaking to the patient: what you say is not as important as how you say it.

8:10 to 8:40 a.m. How to Improve Outcomes in Complex Nasal Polyposis..... Bradford A. Woodworth, M.D.
The participant should be better able to use new medical and surgical treatment strategies for complex and recalcitrant nasal polyposis.

8:40 to 9:10 a.m. Gland-Preserving Management of Submandibular Sialolithiasis... Charles S. Coffey, M.D., FACS
The participant should be better able to 1) explain how transoral approaches may allow removal of large SMG stones and permit gland preservation; 2) formulate critical techniques to optimize surgical success and minimize surgeon frustration.

9:10 to 9:30 a.m. Break

Scientific Session Moderator: Ashli K. O'Rourke, M.D.

9:30 to 10 a.m. Update on the Clinical Evaluation and Treatment of Chronic Cough..... Ashli K. O'Rourke, M.D.
The participant should be better able to state three possible treatments for neurogenic cough.

10 to 10:30 a.m. What's New in Pediatric Sleep-Disordered Breathing..... Phayvanh P. Pecha, M.D.
The participant should be better able to interpret current guidelines in the management of pediatric sleep-disordered breathing and appropriate indications for polysomnography in children.

10:30 to 11 a.m. Emergency Myringotomy Made Simple: Development of a Novel Technique, Simulation Model and Training Curriculum for Hyperbaric Providers ..... Charles S. Coffey, M.D., FACS
The participant should be better able to 1) assess the evolving role of emergency myringotomy in hyperbaric medicine; 2) interpret the limitations of existing models for myringotomy training as applied to the hyperbaric medicine setting; 3) translate the value of qualitative research methods to address challenges in surgical simulation and curriculum development.

11 to 11:30 a.m. What's New in the Treatment of Cystic Fibrosis Chronic Rhinosinusitis.....
..... Bradford A. Woodworth, M.D.
The participant should be better able to 1) assess the underlying basis for the development of cystic fibrosis sinusitis; 2) evaluate the evidence regarding the latest medical and surgical therapies.

11:30 to 11:45 a.m. Break

11:45 to 12:30 p.m. Warren Y. Adkins, M.D. Lecture

House Legacy ..... William M. Luxford, M.D.
The participant should be better able to 1) assess the rationale of the various surgical approaches to vestibular schwannomas; 2) evaluate the indications for cochlear implants to rehabilitate children with severe hearing loss.

12:30 to 2 p.m. Lunch with the Faculty – Round Table Discussions/Case Presentations

2 p.m. Adjourn Please complete and submit all CME forms. Thank you!
