

Phillip Garrido, you are wrong. I could never say that to you before. But I have the freedom now and I am saying you are a liar and all of your so-called theories are wrong. Everything you have ever done to me has been wrong and someday I hope you can see that.

What you and Nancy did is reprehensible. You always justify everything to suit yourself. But the reality is -- and always has been -- that you make someone else suffer for your inability to control yourself.

And for you Nancy, to facilitate this behavior and trick young girls for his pleasure is evil. There is no God in the universe that would condone your actions.

You call yourself an honest man. These are just words to you. They were your tools of choice and you wielded them with brutal force. To you Phillip, I say that I have always been a [unintelligible] for your own amusement. I hated every second of every day of eighteen years because of you and the sexual perversion you forced on me.

To you Nancy, I have nothing to say. Both of you can save your apologies and empty words. For all the crimes you both committed, I hope you have as many sleepless nights as I did.

Yes, as I think of all those years, I am angry because you stole my life and that of my family. Thankfully I am doing well now and no longer live a nightmare. I have wonderful friends and family around me. Something you can never take away from me again. You do not matter anymore.

Jaycee Dugard