39th Annual F. Johnson Putney Lectureship in Head and Neck Cancer

October 24, 2025

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

Over 25 renowned Head and Neck Cancer specialists will gather for a full-day lectureship to discuss ways to enhance healthcare quality for patients with head and neck cancer. The conference will focus on the latest cutting-edge management techniques, including new surgical methods, clinical trial advancements, and reconstructive options that have emerged over the past five years.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion, the participant should be better able to:

- Recognize advances in management of head and neck cancer including the increasing use of neoadjuvant therapy
- Interpret emerging biomarkers in guiding treatment for head and neck cancer
- Assess the role of multidisciplinary care in patients with head and neck cancer
