

College of Medicine
Preclinical Studies Physicianship Form

Name _____ Year of Study _____

Theme _____ Faculty/Staff _____

Directions for completing the Preclinical Studies Physicianship Form. An incident that raises significant concerns about a first-year or second-year medical student's professionalism should be documented using this Physicianship Evaluation Form. The domain in question should be checked in the box or boxes provided below. Comments from the faculty or staff, which may be derived from formal evaluation forms or from personal conversations with peers or supervisors, should be written in the space provided or in a separate document.

This information is being provided by Faculty Staff

Reliability and responsibility

- The student fails to fulfill responsibilities in a reliable or timely manner.
- The student is frequently late to learning activities or leaves early without approval.
- The student has failed to attend a mandatory learning activity.
- The student has failed to submit required documentation for clinical training.
- HIPAA violation

Self-improvement and adaptability

- The student is defensive and resists accepting constructive criticism.
- The student fails to make changes suggested by feedback from educators.
- The student fails to recognize inadequacies in his/her own performance.
- The student fails to contribute to an atmosphere conducive to learning.

Relationships with students, faculty, staff, and patients

- The student is disrespectful and/or inappropriate in oral or written communications.
- The student has difficulty establishing rapport with patients, students, and faculty.
- The student is disrespectful to team members, including other healthcare professionals.
- The student does not demonstrate respect for diversity of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, and /or disability.
- The student has difficulty establishing and maintaining appropriate boundaries in learning situations.
- The student fails to demonstrate honesty.
- The student misrepresents or falsifies information related to learning activities.

Other specific behaviors not included above

- The student engaged in actions that could have been detrimental to patient care.
- The student has come to learning experiences impaired and unfit to fulfill responsibilities.
- The student does not adhere to expectations regarding professional attire.
- The student spends time during class engaging in activities unrelated to small group of class discussions (e.g. social media, texting, e-mailing, etc.).
- The student exhibits inappropriate use of social media.
- Other _____

Narrative Comments related to the incident (required):

Student comments (optional):

This evaluation was discussed with the student on _____ (date)

Student Signature

Date

Faculty/ Staff Signature

Date